According to the Natural Marketing Institute:

"Lifestyles of Health and Sustainability (LOHAS) describes an estimated $209 billion international market segment of consumers and businesses focused on health, personal development, the environment, social justice, and sustainable living.

Approximately 19% percent of the adults in the U.S., or 41 million people, are currently considered LOHAS Consumers. This is based on surveys of the U.S. adult population estimated at 215 million."
